DOCTORATE
in Media and Communication
PhD
School of Media and Communication
Pan-Atlantic University

Nature and Structure of the Programme
The SMC Ph.D consists (consecutively) of two semesters of course work, one half-semester of overseas study, one and half semesters of field work, and two semesters of thesis writing.

On admission, you are required to take the prescribed taught courses and undergo the recommended language proficiency course. Your progress in the programme depends on your performance in the first year.

Operational Design
The SMC Ph.D is a full-time programme. However, for all practical purposes, since some candidates have part-time or flexible full time jobs in various work settings, and in view of other level programmes at SMC, classes will take place in the evening hours or at weekends.
